This year the Wake Parade is open for everyone, the best 2 riders will get a wildcard for the Red Bull Wake Of Steel on 16.June 2012 in LINZ (AUT) at the industry harbour. At the Red Bull Wake Of Steel there will be a unique 60m long steel ship with multiple rail, pipe, box, pool and kicker variations. 16 riders (12 invited + 4 wildcards) will fight head to head on a System 2.0, for cashprizes. Red Bull Wake of Steel will be combined with a music festival.

Location

The Salmsee in Steyregg is located 10 minutes from LINZ, the capital city of upper Austria. LINZ has a population of 200.000 inhabitants and is very famous for his strong economy but it also has a very pleasant city center and nightlife. 2009 LINZ was Europe's culture capital city. A must see is the ARS Museum of the Future.

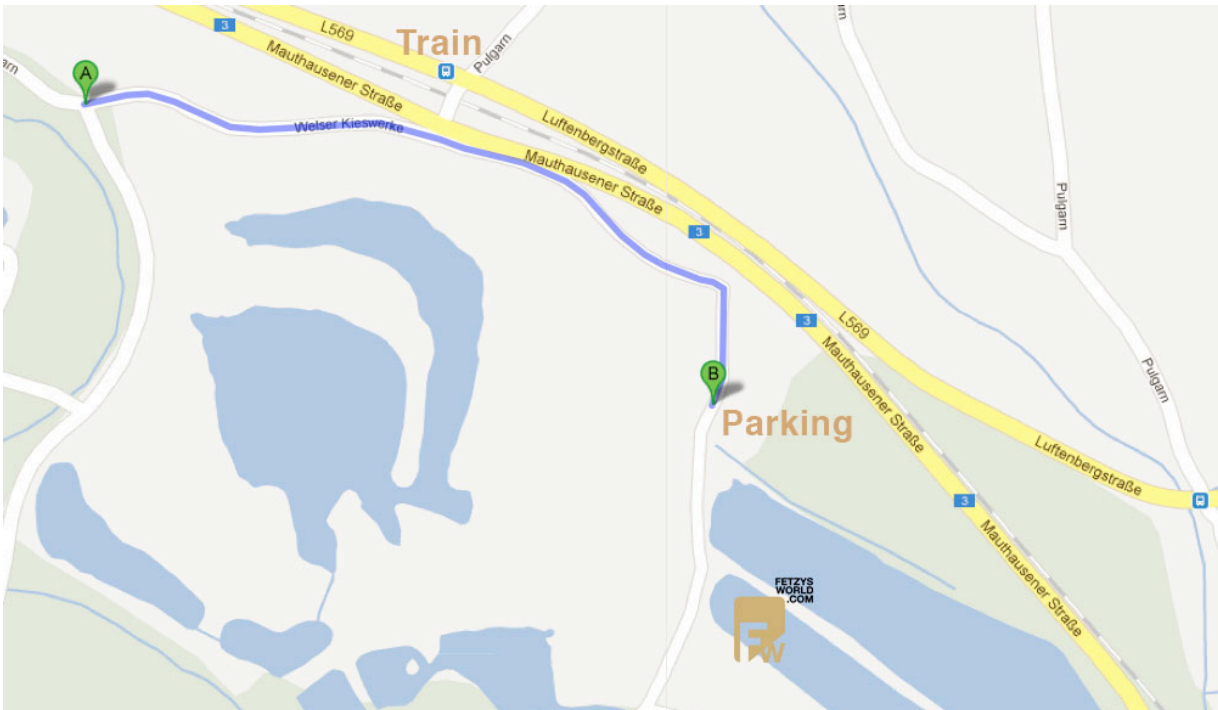

The Salmsee consists of two man-made lakes, specially made for waterskiing. Founded 30 years ago by the MYCN (Motor Yard Club Nibelungen) big waterski events like world championships, etc... have already been held on the Salmsee. Since 2008 Daniel "Fetzy" Fetz has rented one of the Salmsee lakes for his wakeboard school, where he is runs a wakeboard boat plus a two-tower cable. Wake Parade will be the first wakeboard event ever held on the Salmsee.

How to get there

By car: Unfortunately the Salmsee has no official street name for your navigation system. The GPS coordinates are: N 48.274325 E 14.398484 The closest official street is: "Welser Kieswerke 1, Steyregg" (Marked with A on the map) In Google maps, you can enter "fetzysworld" and it will bring you almost there, just the last 200m are not tracked, but you just have to keep going straight until you see the parking space and the white swing gate. The last 100m you have to walk over to the second lake to the right.

If you don't use a navigation system, you will find a detailed route description at www.fetzysworld.com

By plane: The Vienna airport is about 2 hours drive and Munich 3 hours by car. The closest airport is Linz Hörsching, which is about 20 min drive by car/Taxi. For all other airports we recommend the SMS Airport Shuttle Service. For example the price from Munich to Linz with SMS both ways is 100 €. More details and bookings at www.mietwagenservice.at.

By train: Steyregg has its own train station, just 2 stations away from Linz Hbf (the main train station in Linz). From there all hotels in Steyregg are in walking distance. Salmsee also has its own train station called „Pulgarn“ which is one station away from Steyregg. From Pulgarn it's a 5 minute walk to Salmsee. You have to cross the big road (B3 - Mauthausner Straße) and turn left, follow the sign MYCN. You can book your train tickets at www.oebb.at
